Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, August 26, 1824.

On the opposite page is the Official List of yesterday's drawing of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY.—It will be perceived that the Two Thousand Dollar prize came out to No. 15414, and is owned by a gentleman in Baltimore—the Cash for which is ready at COHEN'S OFFICE, as usual. No other prize came out higher than one hundred dollars.

The drawing will be continued on Wednesday after next—previous to commencing, the second capital prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS will be deposited in the wheel, agreeably to the scheme.—The great Capital of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS is also still undrawn, and considering that only Four drawings now remain to complete this popular lottery, a very interesting period is now presented for investments.—Adventurers at a distance should send on their Orders to COHEN'S OFFICE without delay.

Tickets, - $ 12 00	Quarters, - $ 3 00
Halves, - 6 00	Eighths, - 1 50

Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, JR.

Sec'y to the Manag'rs—BALTIMORE.

Prompt payments as usual.

Since our last publication we have had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. Elisha Tarver, of Knoxville, Georgia, the owner of One Half of the great capital prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS in the late Grand State Lottery, and to whom the Cash was instantly paid on presentation of his ticket, agreeably to the accustomed promptness of COHEN'S OFFICE. All the shares of this great prize have been presented, and PAYMENTS INSTANTLY MADE, ALTHOUGH NONE OF THEM WERE DUE AT THE TIME OF PRESENTATION.

Visit from Ohio Adventurers.

It will be recollected that we sent One Quarter of the TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLAR PRIZE to New Lisbon, Ohio. It was presented and duly paid on Monday last to Mr. DAVID BEGGES of that town, who arrived in this city on that day. Mr. B. informs us that the prize is owned by a club of eleven persons, of which he is the agent, and of which fortunate concern he holds one share. The payment of the other shares of this capital we have heretofore announced—one half to Mr. James Crowder of Northampton County, North Carolina, and one quarter to a gentleman of Norfolk, Virginia, whose name we did not then announce, but now have permission to mention, is ARTHUR TAYLOR, Jr. Esq. of that Borough.

CAUTION TO DISTANT ADVENTURERS.

Direction of Letters.—We beg permission to request our friends and customers residing in distant places, to be particular in directing their letters to J. I. COHEN JR. No 114 Market St. BALTIMORE. It will thereby prevent mistakes in being sent to another office, the name of which on paper, appears similar, and to which we understand, several letters have lately been directed on the supposition that the name was ours.

Arrival of Gen. La Fayette.

We congratulate our fellow citizens on the arrival of the great and the glorious La Fayette to the land of Freedom. With inexpressible pleasure we record his arrival at New-York on the 15th inst. in the ship Cadmus, Capt. Allyn, in 31 days from Havre. He is accompanied by his son George Washington La Fayette, and his companion M. Le Vasseur. His reception into the city of New-York was splendid—was becoming the GUEST OF THE NATION, and honorable to the Corporation, and Committee of Arrangements. Our limits do not permit details of the ceremonies on the occasion. All ages, sexes and conditions united in tendering the heartiest welcomes, and as a commencement, fully represented the good wishes of the Republic to one of its earliest heroes and benefactors. After spending four days in New-York, he set out for Boston—previous to his leaving New-York, he received deputations from various Corporations, tendering their congratulations, &c. &c.

The deputation from the City of BALTIMORE which left here on 17th inst. reached New-York on Thursday last, and were presented to the General, by the Mayor and Committee of Arrangement, at the City Hall. On being introduced, Mr. E. L. Finley, one of the deputation, addressed him in the following terms:

GENERAL LA FAYETTE,

"Your arrival in this land and your reception by a nation of freemen, present to the world a beautiful and instructive moral spectacle; and whilst it manifests the affectionate feelings of a people, towards whose emancipation you so nobly contributed, it furnishes a practical refutation of the doctrine of 'Republican Ingratitude.'"

But few of those, General, with whom you so gallantly co-operated in the struggle for our national independence, survive to greet your arrival: but they have left to their descendants, a rich inheritance of feeling towards You as one of the Fathers of our Republic. Of this inheritance, Baltimore has liberally partaken, and has deputed to us the honor of communicating to you these Resolutions, which are expressive of her feelings."

Mr. Finley then presented the Resolutions adopted by the City Council of Baltimore preparatory to his arrival, and expressive of their feelings on the occasion.

After Gen. LA FAYETTE had read the letter and the accompanying resolutions, he addressed the deputation in an animated and eloquent manner, fraught with strong expressions of his attachment to, and his affectionate recollection of the city of Baltimore. It was extemporaneous and came warm from the heart. After expressing in an affecting manner his gratitude to the citizens of Baltimore for their kindness and affection, his feelings were excited at the mention of Baltimore, and he exclaimed "Ah! Baltimore—well do I recollect Baltimore, and with feelings of peculiar gratitude: for to the Merchants of Baltimore, and particularly to the Ladies of Baltimore, I was indebted for assistance which enabled me to open the Virginia campaign—without them I do not know what I could have done. Baltimore was a small town when I was there, but her citizens were always a philanthropic and patriotic people. I understand that it is now a large city, and her great and increasing prosperity I have heard of with pleasure. My warmest thanks to the Corporation for their kindness and affection. Give my most affectionate regard to the citizens of Baltimore, and remember me in the kindest manner to Colonel Howard, General Smith, Mr. Patterson, and all my old friends and companions in arms. I am going to Boston and Albany, and expect to be in Philadelphia about the 15th September, and in Baltimore the last of that month, but when I arrive in Philadelphia, I will communicate more fully with you on the subject. I will hasten on to Baltimore as soon as I can."

The deputation, upon the invitation of Gen. LA FAYETTE, dined with him on the afternoon of the same day, in company with a number of old revolutionary officers, and distinguished citizens.

The deputation returned to this City on Monday last. The General enjoys good health, and as he observed, "is too happy to feel any fatigue."

By the direction of the President of the United States, Orders have been issued from the Departments that Gen. LA FAYETTE be received at all the U. S. military and naval stations, and by all the U. ships in commission, with the honors due to the highest military rank in our service.

It is a fact not generally known, that General LA FAYETTE was made a Citizen of the States of Virginia and Maryland, at the close of the Revolution, by special acts of the Legislatures of those States.

It will be forty years on the 16th of next October, since Gen. LA FAYETTE landed in America on his second visit.

TENT OF WASHINGTON.—Among the very appropriate and well conceived devices which have been exhibited to give eclat to the reception of LA FAYETTE in Baltimore, is the offer by Mr. Custis, to Col. Howard and the Cincinnati of Maryland, of the identical tent used by Washington through the Revolutionary War, packed in the same case in which it was formerly conveyed. It has been carefully preserved.

The following beautiful effusion has not been, and we will venture to say, will not be surpassed by any thing written on subjects connected with the "National Guest."

From the Morning Chronicle.

LA FAYETTE, IN THE TENT OF WASHINGTON.

I will rest in the war-house, that shelter'd the form
Of my hero, my friend, and his country's preserver—
That guarded his care-stricken head from the storm—
That caught the warm sighs of the patriot's fervor.

I will count, by the threads that I find in its woof,
The throbs, in his head and his heart that were beating,
While his thoughts were, when midnight enshrouded its roof,
Retrieving defeat, or a victory greeting.

I will sleep in the home of the soldier—and view,
In my dreams, his achievements, unequal'd in story;
My visions the hopes of my youth shall renew,
Till I wake to the real fruition of glory.

O.

The great success attending share tickets in the Grand State Lottery has caused a very spirited demand for shares in the popular scheme of the MONUMENT LOTTERY, which is the only one now drawing in Baltimore—we shall endeavour to keep a supply of Halves, Quarters and Eighths, as well as whole tickets, throughout the lottery—the wheels are now very interesting—the great Capitals of $20,000 and $10,000: still undrawn.

The venerable Charles Thomson, the Secretary of Congress from the commencement to the conclusion of the Revolution, departed this life on Monday night full of years and full of honors. He has for many years resided on a farm in Montgomery County, and notwithstanding his advanced age, 95 years, continued to receive company till within a short period before his death, retaining the use of his faculties to a remarkable degree. An interview between him and La Fayette would have been highly interesting.—Philad. Gazette.
